CAIMAN'S FAST MILE.

Continued from First Page.

Lingfield summer meeting. The race in question is a penalty and allowance affair, at a mile, for three-year-olds and four-year-olds, but Caiman's five opponents were all three-year-olds, viz: Vain Duchess, 122 pounds; Courlan, 119; Mahdi, 114; Cracks, 113, and Dancing Boy, 102. Caiman's weight was 128 pounds, and with Lester Reiff in the saddle his betting quotation at flagfall was 9 to 4 on, a favoritism which he amply justified by taking the lead at the distance and winning by two lengths from Courlan in the phenomenal time of 1:33½.

The Lingfield mile is perfectly straight and especially adapted to fast time, its ground being slightly on a decline the entire distance. As a matter of fact, the first half mile shows an average decline of one foot in seventy-six, while the last half has an average fall of about one foot in 200. The finish is, therefore, something like 48 feet below the start, and is easily evident that the course must be very fast, especially owing to the fact that the descent is so gradual all the way, presenting no obstacle to a horse's extending himself. Last year, in winning this same race, Harrow created a time record of 1:35½, and now Caiman has eclipsed this by more than two seconds.

Winner—B. f. by Margrave—Regalia.
Went to post at 2:24. At post 13 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly. The next six were driving hard. Regea broke well in her stride, took the shortest route, and from every indication was the best. Barbara M. got a bad ride. Rose took her very wide at the head of the stretch, losing much ground. Edith Q. met with some interference shortly after the start. Eldred showed the most speed early, but quit badly when the pinch came in the stretch. Glove was all tangled up at the start and never got entirely straightened out. Peaches showed but little speed. Telephone Girl is a bad betting proposition.

Overweights—Glove, 2 pounds.
Regea, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Barbara M., place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Edith Q., show, 2 to 1. Telephone Girl, place, 6 to 5; show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. c. by Chance—Belgale.
Went to post at 3:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily up; second, third and fourth were under full sail. Ben Chance showed more speed than he has in any of his recent races and won running away. Limelight is a plodder pure and simple. He was in a soft spot here had he been of any account, but failed badly. Intriguer showed speed but was tired enough to lie down in the last sixth. Ailenna was sharply shut off just as she was making her move on the far turn. Baird ran a fairly good race. Plantain ran a poor race and is evidently of no present account.

Overweights—Leando, 4 pounds; Intriguer, 14.
Ben Chance, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Limelight, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Intriguer, show, 2 to 1. Plantain, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. c. by Kingston—Miss Dixie.
Went to post at 3:40. Off at the first break to an excellent start. Won cleverly; second and third were doing their best. Tyr is a good colt and had to be to win. Under a poor ride he ran a high-class race. Ransom seemed to have no hold of the colt's head, and at the sixteenth post he stumbled and almost fell. Possart broke fully in his stride, found the dead going to his liking and showed a fine turn of speed. He also hung on gamely at the end. Grandon had no excuses and ran his best race. Invictus seems to be improving. Sannazaro must have a muddy track to do his best. Robert Waddell showed some speed, but not much.

Overweights—Sannazaro, 2 pounds; Duke of Bohemia, 1; Possart, 3.
Tyr, place, evens; show, out. Possart, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Grandon, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Sannazaro, place, 13 to 10; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Daniel—Blue Bells.
Went to post at 4:10. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive. The next five were also hard at it. Blue Lick received a perfect ride and ran a good game race. Riders reversed Donation would have won. All Winkfield seems to know is to rush to the front as soon as possible and let his horse die there. Donation always runs best from behind and his rider used poor judgment in not placing him in the first part of the race. Vincennes ran a smashing good race and appears to be in winning form. Guess Me was prominent for about three-quarters and then quit badly. Annowan did not seem to have a bit of speed. Tim Gainay made a fair showing.

Overweights—Donation, 5 pounds; Blue Lick, 1; Owensboro, 2; Guess Me, 1.

Winner—Br. c. by Lissac—Caroline Hamilton.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Tayon is a shifty selling plater and disposed of his field with little or no effort. Hard Knot is and always has been over-rated. He had no excuses in this race and did his best. Handpress was always well up and made a good showing, but he hung a trifle in the final furlong. Talma showed fine speed and can win in lower company. Abe Furst had a rough journey and hardly ran his race. Patroon has evidently had too much racing of late.

Scratched—18234 Alice B., 91; 19450 Sister Fox, 92.
Overweights—Patroon, 3 pounds; Dutch Comedian, 1.

Winner—B. c. by Florist—Czarina II.
Went to post at 5:20. Off at the second break to a good start. Won handily at the end after an early drive; second and third were hard at it. Florizar came with a rush in the stretch and won like a stake horse. He is in excellent form now. The Unknown was rank and wore himself out trying to run away with Walsh. This colt will be hard to beat with a good jockey up. Dissolute had no excuses and hung at the end. Balk Line ran a cracking good race as far as he went and can be marked for early action in ordinary company.
